My Patch Of Blue Sky

A Creative Resource

ABOUT ME

Debbie Dion Hayes

Against my parents' wishes, I earned a BA in Fine Art, concentrating in painting. At that time, maintaining a living by painting was utterly unthinkable. At their insistence, I minored in English in case the art career flopped miserably.

Before graduation I surprised everyone and secured a book illustrator position. My entire career embraced art in many forms: graphic artist, stylist, photographer, creative director at a daily newspaper and an in-flight magazine, full-time faux finisher for 20 years, retail showroom designer and DIY project blogger.

In short, I am passionate about all things paint.

ABOUT My Patch Of Blue Sky

I created My Patch Of Blue Sky late in 2013. It is a small business, primarily serving retailers who sell DIY paint, and DIY paint and related product brands. MyPatchOfBlueSky.com focuses on DIY painting projects.
